THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, LECEMBER 26.

RECOVERED DAMAGES .- A unique case has been decided in the Probate Court of CORNER LEE AND PRINCE STREETS Cooper county, Mo It was that of a colored woman who had just discovered that she is a free woman and not a slave, and who brought suit against her late master's estate for $1 400 wages. When her master died, three weeks ago, she ran away to Boonville, and while there learned that the slaves had been emancipated and that she was a free woman. She told her story to a lawyer, and he brought suit to recover. $1,400. (wages at $5 a month for twenty-five years,) from Hickham's estate. The court decided for the plaintiff and allowed onehalf of the amount claimed.

THE LATE MR. GRADY .- The Boston Merchants' Association, which entertained Mr. Grady at Boston two weeks ago, met yesterday and adopted a letter expressing the admiration of the members for Mr. Grady's sincerity and earnest desire to find a common ground of devotion and loyalty to our common country, and declaring his death a public calamity in which Georgia and Massachusetts equally suffer, and conveying to Mr. Grady's family their sympathy. The flag of the New York Mail and Express was placed at half-mast in honor of Mr. Grady.

EXPENSIVE COFFINS .- Mr. C. W. Young, one of the principal merchants of Juneau, Alaska, was in Portland, Ore., the other day. Among other goods he ordered a score or so of coffins, assorted sizes and of the most expensive description. He says the Indians in that section can have nothing too rich and elegant in the coffin line. The finest plush for covering and silver handles and study beepangled over the coffin are what they want, and will have if they put up their last dollar.

On trains Nos. 58 and 59 Pullman Buffet
Sleepers between Washington and New Orleans and Lynchburg and Bristol. paper in the State, but, with few

Notwithstanding the fulness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep, abreast of the times in all that pertains to a NEWS paper, furnishing its readers daily with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign.

Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept thoroughly posted as to all that is of interest politically, socially, financially or commercially.

Special attention is given to matters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandrians. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eagerness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial department, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State and country, will continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic. With a view to the interest of merchants, farmers and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faithful and accurate.

Through all this section of the State, and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities.

In the household, counting room and workshop it is an ever-welcome visitor, acceptable alike to old and young, the grave and the gay. NO MORE ROUND SHOULDERS.
